

CONFIDENTIAL
1949

uncertain of our own definition, convinced of our essence
to the whole,

echoing experience,
we are becoming...
entering the evolution
of human possibility...

to breathe of constant, continuing love,
entry to,
and perfection of existence.

to endeavor in the springtime of potential,
to feel the winter cold upon the mind,
so intense, denying sleep.

we are the promise of the sun.

the 1969 corric,
the end of some labors,
is dedicated to man...

corric

certain that man
transcends all
but his own depth.

with the sundown
nights ago,
I heard a voice
gentle in the restless wind.
and 'tho I saw not
the spoken to,
sure was I of the words
as if the sounds were seen and their echoes felt.

“please come
but only if you can.
there is a sun to meet
and we have a rendezvous with Life.

we have hate

to translate

to Love's kindness.

we have wounds
to heal.

and consciences
burdened with yesterdays

remembered,

to tell of tomorrow.

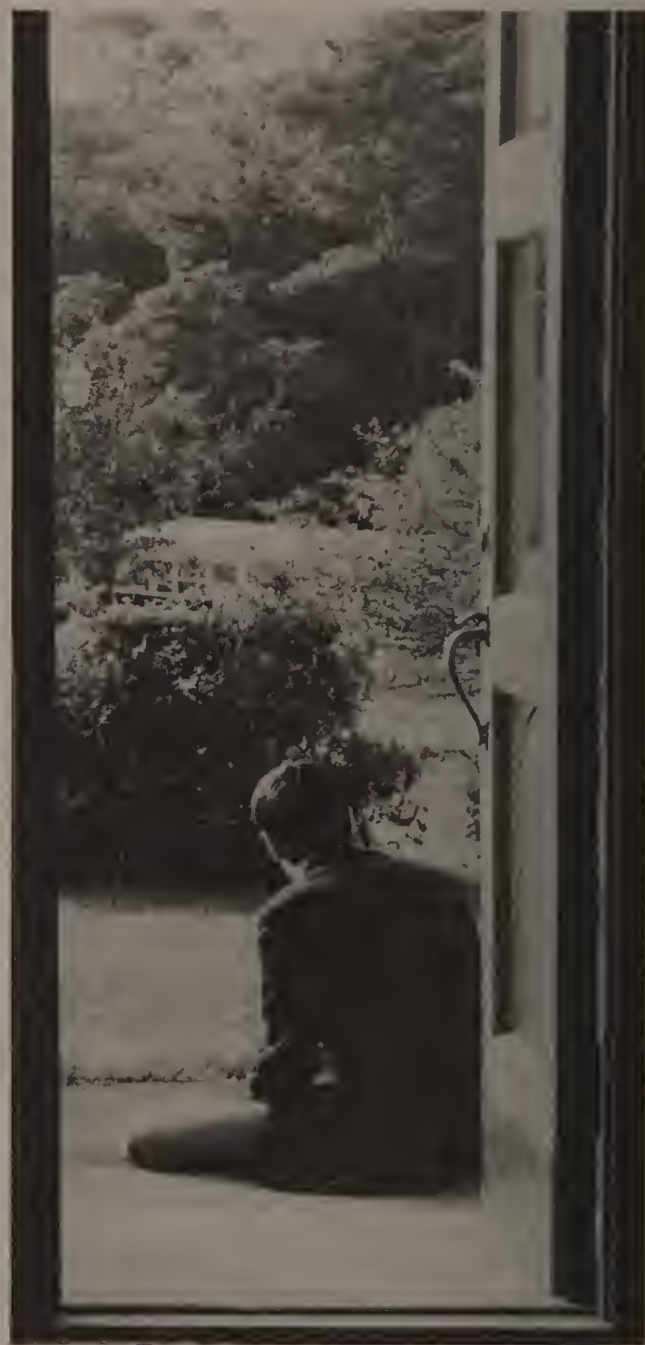

*we have fears
to talk to
and reason with.*

come,

there are thoughts in slumber

to be stirred,

and gently brought to waking.

there are songs unheard that fall to us to sing.

liquid solid cloud like

waiting half asleep

to be shared.

these are roads chilled with shadows cast, and long unfeeling of footsteps.

please come and walk upon them,

for you are as sunlight once concealed,

breaking upon an open field.

please come,

for there is a sun to meet and we have a rendezvous with Life.

Seniors

OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS

somewhere,
beyond the metaphor of song
or season,
extend the reaches
of a love so freely given.

a love that surrendered to division,
seeking completeness.

a love that yielded itself
in solitude,
in winter and in warm...
still subject to the distortions of despair, ignoring the perils of exhaustion and emptiness.

a love that smiled thru remembered dreams
and any involvement...
increasing of itself
as love will do.

a love that accepted pain
aware of a more profound solace.

a love that outdistanced
the receding tides of disappointment, and stilled the turbulence of sleepless, thought filled nights...

and now,
in realization and remembrance,
we acknowledge the true minstrels of our youth...

in deepest awareness
and appreciation of the waking world surrounding,
and the smiling sun encircling us...

of their gift so freely given,
enabling us to share
the center of creation,
the eloquence of each existence;
Love...pure and imageless beyond the metaphor of song or season.

Sodality: the scope of spirit.

diverse means achieve a single end.
the end is service to God thru men.
in the beginning we acknowledge need,
the need that shines in a child's forgotten face,
the necessity of song to the old near perfect sleep.
we seek to make ourselves aware,
aware of the blind and the bound,
aware that vision must be shared.

sodalists seek to identify their self resemblance
to the poor and the protected, to shattered youth and the harmony of age.

DR. FRANCIS ORTOLANI

to Sister Noel, our yearbook advisor, the senior class of '69 extends its deepest thanks... for her untiring efforts, her unseen hours,
for her patience and understanding,
and for countless ideas we have shared.
